

FAQ

1. 1. What type of courses provided by the Department of Fisheries of Brunei Darussalam for the Seafood Processing Industries?

The courses that are available for those who have been in the seafood processing industry are;

- a) Course Seafood Processing Technology,
- b) Hygiene and Security courses in Seafood Processing

2. Does the Department offer financial assistance to start a fishery project after attending courses organized by the Department of Fisheries Brunei Darussalam?

No financial assistance provided by the Department of Fisheries. However, the Department is providing technical advice on how to start a project of fisheries and financial assistance can be requested through the scheme provided by Bank Islam Brunei Darussalam (BIBD) namely;

- i) Skim Kemudahan Perusahaan ($ 50, 0000 - $ 5 million)
- ii) Skim Kewangan Mikrokredit ($ 50,000 and below)

3. What type of assistance can be obtained from the department of Fisheries Seafood Processing Industry?

- i) Advisory services and technical from time to time
- ii) Rental of sites and facilities building
- iii) Programs that are appropriate to the Sea Food Processing Industries

4. How to apply for facilities assistance from the Department such as rental sites and buildings?

For any rental of sites and buildings, the Department will take action as follows;

- i) Advertising publicly in the local media
- ii) Briefing and tour of the site or building facilities
- iii) Submission of proposal by the company to the Department
- iv) Review of the papers
- v) Support Department on the company submitted to the Ministry for approval
- vi) Appointment letter submitted to the successful company after obtaining approval from the Ministry

5. What is the contribution of the Department to assist small-scale entrepreneurs?

Department of Fisheries Carnival are held three times a year to help assist entrepreneurs to market their products, in addition to promoting local fishery products.